

Joseph Lapinski

📍 Old Forge, PA 18518 📞 570 290 0811

✉️ Joseph.lapinski@scranton.edu

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Dynamic food runner with a strong work ethic at AV Restaurant and Lounge, adept at thriving in high-pressure environments. Demonstrated effective multitasking and teamwork, ensuring order accuracy and exceptional customer service. Recognized for building relationships and maintaining safety awareness, contributing to a seamless dining experience.

SKILLS

- Quick learner
- Strong work ethic
- Effective multitasking
- Relationship building
- Teamwork and collaboration
- Time management
- Sense of urgency
- Safety awareness

WORK HISTORY

FOOD RUNNER

06/2022 to CURRENT

AV Restruant and Lounge | Scranton, PA

- Handled high-pressure situations calmly and professionally during peak hours or unexpected rushes at the restaurant.
- Managed multiple tasks simultaneously, prioritizing duties effectively for maximum productivity.
- Greeted customers and provided outstanding customer service.
- Collaborated with the kitchen staff to ensure accuracy of orders, minimizing order errors and complaints.

EDUCATION

MBA | Business Finance

EXPECTED IN 05/2030

University of Scranton, Scranton, PA

High School Diploma

06/2025

Old Forge High School , Old Forge, PA

INTERESTS

- Gym Workouts
- Chess
- I enjoy cooking for friends and family gatherings.

PLACED TOP 10 IN DREAM LEARN PITCH BUSINESS

In my junior year of high school, there was a competition where you had to create your own business. My friend and I had the idea to pitch a business called the Weiner Wagon, a hot dog cart that sells a healthier hot dog. Overall, the judges loved the idea of the Wiener Wagon and our sales pitch made a lasting impression. While, the wiener wagon never actually became real, it inspired me to pursue a degree and business.

COMPETITION